HYATT, Board Judge.

ORDER

Appellant, PM Realty Group, Ltd., appealed a contracting officer's decision assessing excess costs of reprourement in connection with a contract for operations and maintenance services for a federal building in Chicago, Illinois. The contract had been terminated for default on November 5, 1998. The appeal of the excess costs of reprourement was filed with the Board on November 3, 2000. At that time, an appeal of the default termination decision was pending at the United States Court of Federal Claims. Following the filing of the appeal, the Government filed a motion to transfer and consolidate the two matters at the Court. Proceedings were thus suspended by the Board. On June 22, 2001, the motion was granted and an order was issued providing that this appeal be transferred to the United States Court of Federal Claims and consolidated with the appeal pending there.

Accordingly, this appeal is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.
